MANAGING DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to address you through this edition of the newsletter of IIMT College of Law. Our instruction continues to strive for excellence in legal education while nurturing values of integrity, discipline and social responsibility among our students.

The legal profession demands not only academic knowledge but also critical thinking, ethical commitment and practical exposure. At IIMT College of Law, we are dedicated to providing a holistic learning environment that empowers students to excel both inside and outside the classroom.

I am delighted to note the enthusiastic participation of our students in various academic and co-curricular activities. The achievements of our students reflect their hard work, dedication and the continuous support of our faculty members. I encourage all the students to actively engage in such opportunities and strive for excellence in every endeavor.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the editorial team for their commendable efforts in bringing out this edition. I wish them continued success and look forward to many more accomplishments from our institution.

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Readers,

It gives me immense pleasure to connect with you through this edition of our newsletter. Each issue is a reflection of our shared journey—marked by growth, resilience and continuous learning.

Over the past months, we have achieved significant milestones that highlight our commitment to excellence and innovation. These accomplishments would not have been possible without the dedication, collaboration and passion of every individual associated with our organization. I extend my sincere appreciation to all our team members, partners and supporters who contribute tirelessly to our success.

As we move forward, we remain focused on embracing new opportunities while strengthening our core values. The road ahead presents both challenges and possibilities and I am confident that together, we will continue to adapt, evolve and thrive.

I encourage you to stay engaged, share your ideas and be an active part of our journey. Your feedback and participation are invaluable as we strive to build a stronger and more dynamic community.

Thank you for your continued trust and support.

Prof. Dr. Sanjay Singh

OUR COLLEGE ACHIEVEMENTS

IIMT College of Law continues to fortify its reputation as a premier destination for legal education, achieving stellar recognitions across multiple prestigious national ranking platforms for the academic year 2025-26. In the highly competitive India Today rankings, the institution proudly secured the 74th position nationwide, marking a commendable one-rank uplift backed by a significant increase of 112 marks. Furthermore, the Indian Institutional Ranking Framework (IIRF) placed the college firmly within the Top 50 Private Law Colleges in India, honoring it with an All India Rank (AIR) of 44. These major milestones underscore the college's unwavering commitment to delivering quality legal pedagogy, robust institutional support and an enriching academic environment that empowers the next generation of legal professionals.

Demonstrating strong regional dominance, the college has emerged as a benchmark institution in Uttar Pradesh and the wider Northern Region. According to the Global Human Resource Development Centre (GHRDC), IIMT College of Law clinched the 9th rank in the coveted Category of Outstanding Excellence, while securing the 5th rank within the State of Uttar Pradesh and the 11th rank across the Northern Region. The institution's upward trajectory is further validated by the Competition Success Review (CSR), which recognized it as a Top Law School of Excellence in India 2026 and elevated its standing to the 6th rank in Uttar Pradesh, representing a critical one-rank uplift from previous evaluations. Locally, the college has solidified its elite status by securing the 2nd position in Greater Noida under the IIRF framework, proving its local impact alongside its expanding national footprint.

Looking ahead, IIMT College of Law remains dedicated to benchmarking its standards against the absolute highest institutional frameworks in the country. Reflecting this proactive vision, the institution has successfully participated in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) for the 2025-26 cycle, with the official rankings eagerly anticipated. These collective achievements stand as a testament to the shared dedication of the management, faculty and students who continuously strive to fulfill the college's foundational motto—Aim For Excellence.

OUR FACULTY COMMUNITY

The institution recently celebrated a momentous occasion honoring our esteemed Director, Dr. Sanjay Singh, for his outstanding contributions to legal research and academia. During a special felicitation ceremony, Dr. Singh was recognized for his remarkable achievement in writing and publishing two books in alignment with the college's R&D initiatives. Further adding to his academic accolades, Dr. Singh also successfully published a peer-reviewed research article titled "Voting Behaviour of Differently Abled Persons: A Study in Paschim Medinipur District of West Bengal" in the multidisciplinary Lex Scripta Journal.

Continuing the department's strong momentum in academic publishing, our faculty members have also made significant strides in contributing to contemporary legal discourse. Mr. Puru Pratap Singh, alongside co-authors Ms. S Annu, Ms. Sakshi and Ms. Shalini Pant, published an insightful paper titled "Corporate Governance Challenges in Indian Unicorns: Aligning Promoter Control with Investor Protection Mechanisms" in the International Journal For Multidisciplinary Research (IJFMR). Additionally, Ms. Uma Devi contributed a compelling piece titled "Legalization Of Same Sex Marriage In India – Fight Against Inequality," which was also successfully published in the IJFMR. These collective achievements reflect the institution's unwavering commitment to fostering rigorous legal research and academic excellence.

OUR STUDENT COMMUNITY

IIMT College of Law, Greater Noida, is immensely proud to celebrate the outstanding academic excellence demonstrated by the students of our newly introduced B.Com.LL.B. program. As a "newborn batch," the first-year students of the 2025-26 academic session have set an incredibly high benchmark for all future cohorts. Their stellar performance is a powerful testament to their hard work, adaptability and the institution's unwavering commitment to delivering premier legal education. The dedication shown by these trailblazing students proves that a strong and promising foundation has been successfully laid for this integrated law program.

We proudly recognize and commend the top performers who have led this pioneering batch by example. Saksham Singh Bisht secured the top position with an impressive 70%, followed closely by Shivani Kumari and Shalini Kumari, who both achieved a remarkable 68%. These bright minds have truly embodied the spirit of academic rigor and perseverance. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the toppers, their families and the faculty members who guided them and we look forward to witnessing their continued success as they progress in their legal journey.

INTER COLLEGE LEGAL ARGUMENT COMPETITION

The IIMT Inter College Legal Argument Competition 2026 was organized to provide law students with a specialized platform for one-sided oral arguments as Counsel for the Petitioner. Unlike traditional moots, this competition focused exclusively on the maintainability of a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution against a quasi-governmental entity.

The competition utilized a hypothetical proposition, Dr. Ananya Sharma v. Bharat Edu-Tech Solutions Ltd., involving issues of fundamental rights violations and state instrumentality. Participants were evaluated on their knowledge of law, application of legal principles, articulation and their response to the Bench's questions. The event successfully simulated the atmosphere of a High Court admission hearing, requiring participants to adhere to a strict professional dress code.

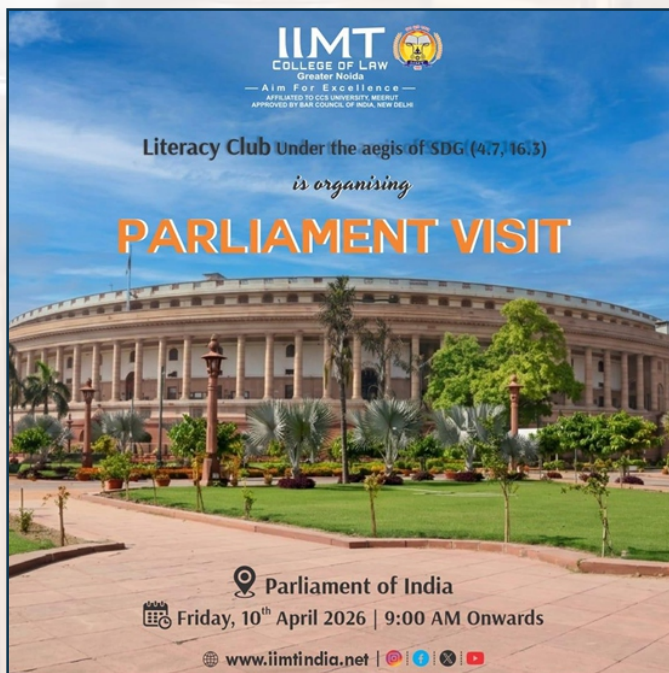

The winners were declared based on their persuasive ability, legal research and mastery over the writ formatting:

Award	Winner Name	Institutional Affiliation
Winner	Vanshika Arora	Innovative Institute of Law, Greater Noida
Runner-Up	Mohit Chauhan	IIMT College of Law, Greater Noida
Best Writ Format	Ms. Pinky	St. Thomas College of Law

PARLIAMENT VISIT

On 10th April 2026, IIMT College of Law organized an educational visit to the Parliament of India for students of B.A. LL.B., LL.B. and B.Com LL.B. The visit aimed to provide students with practical exposure to the functioning of the Indian legislative system and deepen their understanding of constitutional processes. The students, accompanied by faculty members, reached the Parliament premises in the morning after completing all necessary security formalities. The visit began with an introductory briefing where students were informed about the history, structure and significance of the Indian Parliament. They learned about the roles of the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha, as well as the law-making process. One of the most enriching parts of the visit was witnessing the live proceedings of the House. Students observed debates and discussions, gaining first-hand insight into how laws are deliberated and passed. This experience helped bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world application. In addition to the Parliament visit, students also visited the Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya. The museum provided an engaging and informative overview of the lives and contributions of all the Prime Ministers of India. Through interactive exhibits, digital displays and archival materials, students gained a deeper appreciation of India's political history and leadership. Overall, the visit proved to be an enlightening and memorable experience for the students. It enhanced their awareness of democratic functioning and inspired them to actively engage with legal and constitutional matters. Such initiatives by IIMT College of Law play a crucial role in shaping informed and responsible future legal professionals.

ELECTROWAVE

On April 10, 2026, the Cultural Committee of IIMT College of Law hosted a vibrant series of cultural competitions as part of the "Electrowave" Dance & Music Fest. The dance segment featured both solo and group performances spanning classical, folk, contemporary and western styles. Judged by industry professionals, the events showcased incredible choreography, vibrant costumes and expressive stage presence. Team Dazzlers and Sriti Mohan secured first-place victories in the group and solo dance categories respectively, while students like Anshika from IIMT College of Law earned top honors across both events.

The vocal music segment included highly competitive Solo and Group Singing events held in the college's MOOT Court. Participants from various schools and colleges performed a wide array of genres, impressing the audience and judges with their vocal harmony, rhythm and confident stage presentation. Suhani Sharma from GL Bajaj emerged as a standout talent, securing the First Position in both the solo and group singing categories, followed closely by Tanu and Kirti from IIMT College of Law, who took the second and third places.

Rounding out the festival were the "Band of Battle" and Instrument Playing competitions, which provided a dynamic platform for live bands and individual instrumentalists to demonstrate their musicality, original compositions and coordination. These live performances brought immense energy to the festival and highlighted the students' diverse technical skills. Overall, the mega-event was a grand success, effectively fostering teamwork, confidence, artistic expression and cultural appreciation among all participating students and institutions.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

The National Level Conference on "Transforming Labour Governance in India" was successfully organized by IIMT College of Law, providing a premier platform for legal academicians, researchers and students to deliberate on the shifting paradigms of Indian labour laws. Conducted in a hybrid format, the conference facilitated widespread participation through an Offline Track and an Online Track.

The academic discourse spanned a wide array of pressing themes, with scholars critically assessing the four new Labour Codes. Offline sessions highlighted the enforcement deficits in occupational safety and the evolution of workers' rights. The online track expanded the conversation to include the precariat nature of the platform economy the exclusion of domestic workers from minimum wage frameworks and the nuances of algorithmic control over multi-platform gig workers. Through rigorous comparative and critical analysis, the conference highlighted both the progressive pathways and the emerging challenges within India's updated regulatory responses.

AAROGYA

On 21st April 2026, the Yoga Club of IIMT College of Law, Greater Noida, successfully organized Yoga Practice Session in the Badminton Court of the college. The theme for the Season was NIROGYA. The event commenced at 9:10 AM and witnessed active participation from students of both B.A. LL.B. and LL.B. programmes. .

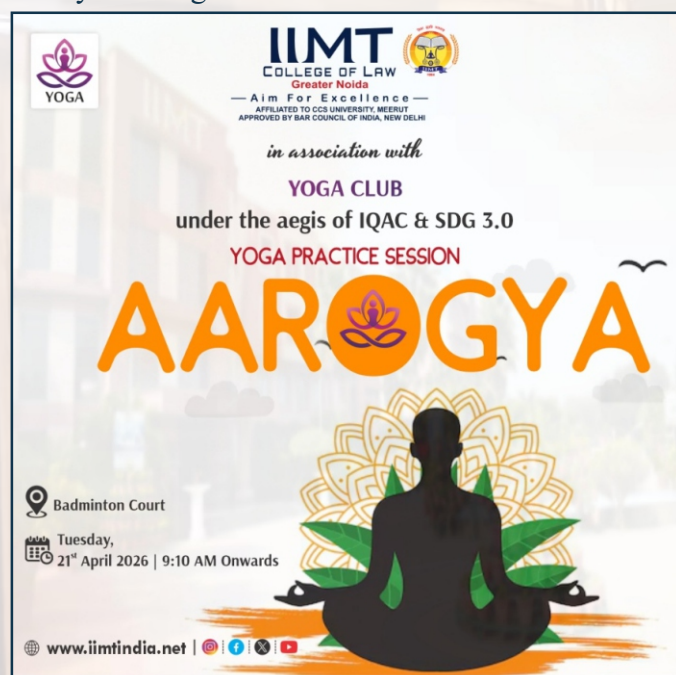

The session began with a short introduction about the importance of yoga in daily life. Students then performed warm-up exercises followed by simple yoga asanas such as Tad Asan and VraksAsana Vrikshasana and Bhujangasana..

Teachers explained how yoga helps in maintaining physical health, improving concentration and reducing stress. Students were encouraged to practice yoga regularly to develop discipline and a balanced lifestyle.

In addition to asanas, the session included pranayama or breathing exercises such as deep breathing and Anulom Vilom. These exercises helped students focus their minds and improve their breathing patterns. The instructor emphasized the importance of proper breathing techniques in maintaining mental calmness and improving concentration.

Breathing exercises (pranayama) were also practiced to improve concentration and relaxation. The session ended with a short meditation to calm the mind and reduce stress. All students participated actively and showed great enthusiasm. The session helped improve flexibility, focus and overall energy levels. It was a refreshing and beneficial experience for everyone.

Overall, the yoga session was a successful and enriching experience. It highlighted the importance of incorporating yoga into the Academic routine to support the overall development of students—physically, mentally and emotionally. Such sessions should be conducted regularly to promote a healthy and balanced lifestyle among students.

YOUTH PARLIAMENT

The Youth Parliament Competition was meticulously organized to provide law students with practical, hands-on exposure to the functioning of India's parliamentary system. Following a comprehensive briefing on legislative procedures, students assumed the roles of key dignitaries, including the Prime Minister, Speaker and various Members of Parliament representing both the ruling and opposition parties. This structured setup ensured participants were fully immersed in the complexities of political roleplay.

During the simulation, students navigated authentic parliamentary proceedings such as Question Hour, Zero Hour and rigorous debates on pressing national issues. The mock sessions required participants to present well-reasoned arguments, address policy matters and maintain strict parliamentary decorum. Faculty and judges evaluated the students on their content, confidence and adherence to rules, fostering an environment that sharpened their critical thinking, leadership and communication skills.

The event concluded with a valedictory ceremony celebrating outstanding contributions, highlighting how effectively the competition bridged theoretical knowledge with practical application. Major accolades included Narendra Modi as Best Performer (Prime Minister), Amit Shah for Best Speech and Rahul Gandhi receiving the Meritorious Award. Additionally, Akhilesh Yadav won Best Attire, while Shashi Tharoor and Iqra Hasan earned special recognition, capping off an enriching experience that deepened the students' understanding of democratic governance.

PLACEMENT DRIVE

IIMT College of Law recently hosted the highly anticipated Alumni Interaction and Placement Drive 2026, aimed at bridging the gap between academia and the professional world. The event successfully brought together experts from the legal, educational and corporate sectors to provide our students with diverse internship and robust career opportunities. With a fantastic student turnout, the drive fostered an engaging environment where aspiring legal professionals could directly interact with recruiters, explore various career avenues and gain invaluable industry insights to help navigate their future paths.

A major highlight of the drive was the active participation of several reputed organizations eager to recruit top talent from our institution. Prominent firms including Reduce Debts (Noida), Comero Leasing & Financials Pvt Ltd., Associated Insurance Surveyors and Loss Assessors LLP, Tri Lex & Juris (Surajpur) and Aprajita Legal (Lajpat Nagar) conducted rigorous interactive sessions and interviews. The presence of these esteemed organizations not only enriched the students' placement experience but also underscored IIMT College of Law's ongoing commitment to securing strong professional trajectories for its graduates. A total of 26 students from B.A LL. B and LL. B programs participated in Job Interviews and 14 students received the job offer.

SUPREME COURT VISIT

An educational visit to the Supreme Court of India was organized for the students of IIMT College of Law on 14 May 2026 from 10:00 a.m. onwards at the Supreme Court of India, New Delhi, with the objective of providing practical exposure to the functioning of the apex judicial institution of the country. The visit was conducted under the guidance of faculty members, ensuring meaningful academic interaction and observation of court proceedings.

During the visit, students observed live courtroom proceedings and gained first-hand knowledge of the judicial process followed in constitutional, civil and criminal matters. The proceedings demonstrated the manner in which senior advocates presented arguments before the Hon'ble Judges and how judicial interpretation plays a significant role in the administration of justice. Students also witnessed the discipline, professionalism and procedural framework maintained inside the courtrooms.

The visit further provided students with valuable insights into the constitutional role of the Supreme Court as the guardian of fundamental rights and the interpreter of the Constitution of India. The interaction with legal professionals and the overall court environment helped students understand the practical dimensions of advocacy, legal research and judicial decision-making.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME ON IPR

IIMT College of Law successfully hosted a comprehensive Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) from June 8th to 13th, 2026. Featuring twelve distinguished experts from premier institutions and the Supreme Court bar, the six-day initiative was designed to deepen faculty expertise and seamlessly integrate IP concepts into institutional research and pedagogy. The early sessions established a robust legal framework, addressing the critical intersection of IP and academic integrity through discussions on pharmaceutical patenting, fair use, plagiarism management and the safeguarding of academic publications and literary works.

As the program progressed, the focus transitioned toward practical application, commercialization and emerging technological challenges. Educators were guided through the intricacies of trademarks for student startups, the step-by-step Indian patent filing process and strategies for technology transfer from the laboratory to the market. By also exploring modern frontiers like AI-generated research and emphasizing the role of professional ethics in advancing institutional ratings, the FDP effectively empowered the faculty to foster a legally compliant, innovative and research-driven academic environment.

SUMMER INTERNSHIP

Students of IIMT College of Law continue to demonstrate exceptional merit by securing prestigious summer internships at esteemed governmental and legal institutions. Notably, Mr. Prasoon Ranjan, a second-year student, successfully completed a comprehensive internship with the Bihar State Legal Services Authority and advanced to the interview stage for a dedicated placement with the Patna High Court Legal Services Committee. Similarly, Ms. Kanak Sharma has distinguished herself by securing highly competitive internship positions at both the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) Principal Bench in New Delhi and the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA). These individual accomplishments highlight the rigorous academic foundation and practical readiness of the institution's aspiring legal professionals.

Beyond these standout individual achievements, the broader student body is actively gaining invaluable practical experience across the legal spectrum. Currently, more than 20 students are engaged in various prominent government and quasi-government summer internship programs across the country. This widespread participation in high-level institutional training not only reflects the dedication of the students to their professional development but also underscores the college's ongoing commitment to bridging the gap between theoretical legal education and real-world administrative practice.
